WHAT CONGRESS DID

a limit on immigration which offended the sensibilities of the Japanese. The new treaty omits this clause, but goes into effect under conditions that make certain a continuance of the present statute under which Japan is herself limiting the immigration of her people into this country, and all this without the enforcing of any restrictions on our part. Thus, without offending the patriotic pride of our neighbors upon the Pacific, we are able to maintain an important national policy.

Failure Of Reciprocity.

"Of course, the greatest disappointment of the session was the failure of the Senate to follow the lead of the House in ratifying the reciprocity agreement with Canada. * * *

"Canada is at the parting of the ways. If we now reject this opportunity to bring about closer business and trade relations and insist upon the continuance of an artificial wall between the two countries, we shall throw away an opportunity for mutual benefit not likely to recur.

Extra Session Call.

"Under my promise to use my utmost efforts to secure the ratification of this agreement, I have felt it my duty, upon the failure of the Senate to act, to call an extra session for the purpose of securing the ratification of the agreement. My opinion is that a majority of both houses, disregarding party lines, will seize a great national opportunity and promptly ratify the agreement before proceeding to other business if it is deemed wise or necessary to proceed to other business.

"I feel confident that a test of six months of this agreement will so vindicate the wisdom of adopting it as to remove it from political discussion thereafter."

PERSISTENT COLDS.

There is no reason why a cold should hang on for weeks, or until some chronic throat or lung trouble is developed, and it will not if you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. By its remarkable cures of colds that remedy has from a small beginning acquired a world-wide sale and use. You may know that a remedy that has constantly grown in favor and popularity for almost forty years has more than ordinary merit. For sale by Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.
